

BUTTERFLY SYMMETRY ART

Lesson of the Day:

People have hearts that are like a butterfly: beautiful, and gentle. If we are kind and take care of each other, everyone hearts will be happy and healthy. Let's try our best to be gentle with everyone's hearts!

Materials:

- Black tempura paint
- Watercolor paints
- White Paper
- Paintbrushes

Instructions:

1. Discuss the lesson of the day with your students. Talk about what it means to them.
2. Fold pieces of paper in half.
3. Have students use black paint to draw half of a butterfly on one half of the paper.
4. Have students fold the paper in half and press down. When they open the paper, there will be a full butterfly outlined.
5. Once the black paint is dry, have students use watercolors to fill in their butterfly outline.

NOTE: When they fold the paper, press, and reopen, their butterfly may need some touch-ups.
