Lesson of the Day:

Do you love your grandparents? Of course you do! We all love our grandparents. We're going to make a book for our grandparents today for grandparents day!

What are some of your favorite memories of your grandparents? What do you love about them? How would you feel if you didn't have grandparents?

Materials:

Instructions:

1. Discuss the lesson of the day with your students. Talk about what it means to them.
2. Have the kids grab several pieces of paper and fold them in half.
3. Punch holes in the paper and help students tie ribbons through to bind the book together.
4. Encourage students to write and draw about all the things they do with their grandparents and all the reasons they love them.
5. Color and decorate the books!
