

HEART TREES

Lesson of the Day:

The more we know people, the more our love for them grows. Even if we disagree on things or we find out that they're not perfect (remember- no one is perfect) we still love them. Love is the foundation on which we can build great friendships and relationships, and a great way to make sure we care for those around us.

Materials:

- Template (next page)
- Red and pink paper
- Crayons
- Scissors
- Glue

Instructions:

1. Discuss the lesson of the day with your students. Talk about what it means to them.
2. Have students cut out hearts in many sizes from the pink and red construction papers.
3. Have them color the template, words and trunk alike.
4. Glue down the hearts as leaves on the tree. Make sure it's layered with a lot of hearts.
5. Have them copy down or write a nice message to the person they will give their picture to.
