

ON OUR STREET

DR. JILLIAN ROBERTS & JAIME CASAP

This book talks about homelessness in a frank, open way to help kids understand how homelessness happens and how it affects people. It gives a great basic introduction to the concept and talks to kids in a way that is not condescending, but honest. It gives information on multiple sides of homelessness and what it looks like in our country.

Questions:

Mostly this book is to answer questions and educate.

1. How would it feel to be homeless? What would worry you the most? What would hurt your feelings the most?
2. Discuss and list the ways kids can help the homeless. Do you want to do some of these things together as a class?
3. Even if you weren't homeless, what would it feel like to live in poverty?
4. How would you feel if you couldn't go to school? What if that meant you couldn't get a good job?
5. How would it feel to be a refugee? What would be the hardest thing?
