

PAPER POPSICLES

Lesson of the Day:

Treat yourself and others! Sometimes we just need a little treat to help keep ourselves happy. But not only do we need to treat ourselves and make ourselves happy, but also to treat others and make them happy when we can. So if you have two popsicles, share! Make someone else's day brighter as well as your own!

Materials:

- Popsicle sticks
- Paper
- Glitter glue
- Markers
- Crayons
- Sequins/jewels

Instructions:

1. Discuss the lesson of the day with your students. Talk about what it means to them.
2. Give kids various colors of papers.
3. Help show them how to cut out a large shape to act as the popsicle.
4. Glue decorations and details to the popsicle, like sprinkles or other fun
5. Glue the popsicle to the stick.
