

PAPER UNICORN

Lesson of the Day:

Unicorns are magical creatures. You are a magical creature too. Every single person has magic inside of them. You can find it by being kind to yourself and to others. Once you find it, use it to help others find their magic!

Materials:

- White paper
- Markers
- Glitter glue
- Sequins
- Scissors
- Glue/tape

Instructions:

1. Discuss the lesson of the day with your students. Talk about what it means to them.
2. Have students cut a heart out of white paper. Turn the heart upside down and draw an eye, nose, and mouth if desired.
3. Have students cut an ear and a horn out of white paper. Color both as desired and glue them to the heart.
4. Have students cut out a wide strip of white paper. Have them color the strip in various colors, whatever is their favorite. Have them cut the paper so that it becomes a fringe. Glue this to the back of the unicorn's head as its mane.
5. Add details!
