

SPONGE PAINTED TURKEYS

Lesson of the Day:

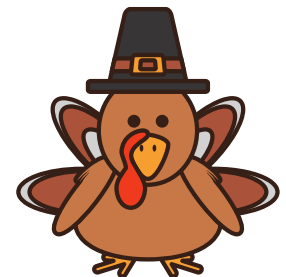

Thanksgiving is all about being grateful for the wonderful things that we have. What are you thankful for? What makes you happy? Who are you thankful for? Who helps you and makes your life easier?

Let's think about all the good things we have!

Materials:

- Orange, red, and yellow paint
- Brown, red, and orange paper
- Sponges
- Paper plate
- Google eyes

Instructions:

1. Discuss the lesson of the day with your students. Talk about what it means to them.
2. Have students sponge paint the paper plate with red, orange, and yellow paint.
3. While it's starting to dry, have students cut out the shape of the turkey body, the beak, and the snoods from the construction paper.
4. Have the students glue all the turkey parts together, including the googly eyes.
5. Have the students glue the turkey body to the plate.
